Admission requirements:

The candidates should have a Master Degree in Biotechnology, Biological Science or another related field (minimal mark of 16/20), and availability to start immediately.

Expertise in bacteriophage isolation, characterization and application is required.

A special interest and competencies within microbiology of bacterial pathogens, molecular biology, and in the development of biomaterial approaches to prevent and treat infectious diseases are also required.

Previous experience with biomaterials development/characterization, evaluation of biomaterials antimicrobial properties and their cytotoxicity/biocompatibility, following in vitro, ex vivo and in vivo characterization, will be preferred.

The work will be developed at i3S in the Biocomposites Group, within the research line “Advanced biomaterials for tissue regeneration”

Grant duration: The fellowship, is expected to start in May 2019, and shall have the duration of 8 months.

Value for monthly allowance: € 989,70, according to table values of FCT regulations, in the country (<http://www.fct.pt/apoios/bolsas/valores>) and will be paid monthly, preferably by bank transfer.

Fellowships are regulated by current laws relating to the Statute of Science Research Fellows, namely Law 40/2004 of August 18, amended and republished by Decree-Law No. 202/2012 of 27 August and the Regulation of Scientific Research Studentships of the INEB approved by Fundação para a Ciência e Tecnologia (http://www.ineb.up.pt/sites/default/files/RBINEB_9Nov2011.pdf)

Selection of candidate: The candidates will be ranked based on curriculum vitae and motivation letter, considering the above indicated previous requirements. Curriculum and previous experience in relevant topics of the project will count 80% and motivation letter will account for 20%.

Jury: Fernando Jorge Monteiro, Susana Sousa, Christine Salgado and Ângela Carvalho (susbtitute).

Applications are open from March 7th to March 20th, 2019.

To apply for the Research Fellowship (MSc) candidates must submit online the following documents a) Complete CV; b) Letter of Motivation; c) Copy of the MSc degree certificate
