Admission requirements: The candidates should have an Integrated Master Degree in Bioengineering or equivalent (minimal classification of 16) and availability to start immediately. Previous experience in cell culture and blood-brain-barrier in vitro and in vivo models. Applicants should also have experience in immunocytochemistry, confocal microscopy as well as biocompatibility assessment of drug delivery systems.

The work will be developed in research line “Nanostructured biomaterials for tissue regeneration” in the nanoBiomaterials for Targeted Therapies group.

Grant duration: 6 months, possibly renewable until the end of the project duration. The fellowship is expected to start in December, 2018.

Value for monthly allowance: € 980 according to table values of FCT regulations, in the country (<http://www.fct.pt/apoios/bolsas/valores>) and will be paid monthly, preferably by bank transfer.

Fellowships are regulated by current laws relating to the Statute of Science Research Fellows, namely Law 40/2004 of August 18, amended and republished by Decree-Law No. 202/2012 of 27 August and the Regulation of Scientific Research Studentships of the INEB approved by Fundação para a Ciência e Tecnologia (http://www.ineb.up.pt/sites/default/files/RBINEB_9Nov2011.pdf)

Jury: Ana Paula Pêgo, Sofia Santos and Victória Leiro. Pedro Moreno (substitute).

Selection method: After analysis of the curriculum vitae and letter of motivation, a ranking of candidates for curriculum evaluation will be made, taking into account the explicit admission requirements above. Curricular evaluation, prior experience in areas relevant to the project, and motivation letter will have the final weights of 40%, 45% and 15%, respectively.

Applications are open from November 7 to 21 november, 2018.

To apply for the Research Fellowship (i3S.HOST_RL4_BIM_02_2018) candidates must submit online the following documents a) Complete CV; b) Letter of Motivation; c) Copy of MSc degree certificate and d) Contact of two references, at:

http://portal.i3s.up.pt/gestaocandidaturasineb/index.php?codigo=i3S.HOST_RL4_BIM_02_2018

The ranking list of candidates will be published at INEB website, and the selected candidate will be notified by email.

Candidates who formalize their application incorrectly or who do not prove the requirements are excluded from admission.

Non-discrimination and equal access policy: INEB actively promotes a nondiscrimination and equal access policy, wherefore no candidate can be privileged, benefited, impaired or deprived of any rights whatsoever, or be exempt of any duties based on their ancestry, age, sex, sexual preference, marital status, family and economic conditions, instruction, origin or social conditions, genetic heritage, reduced work capacity, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic origin or race, origin territory, language, religion, political or ideological convictions and union membership.
